Confidence in companies deriving their corpo-ate powers from any government in Nicaragua is one, it may be for years, and it may be forever. Vicaragua Transit stock has had its day, and any aship or transit company formed to take place' of the old will never find a place in this arket. It would be just about as easy to sell Parer Vein stock at the Board of Brokers as to induce he public to invest in another Nicaraugua Steam-hip Company. There is now a chance for the ck speculating friends of Walker to open a line they own or have credit enough to charter a mer or two we should like to see them engage the business at once. There will not be such rich ckings as the Transit Company presented, and the ses will come out of pockets that miss every dol-, instead of the treasury of a company which i prosed to have no soul.
